PATRICIA DAHLIA GARDENS LIST FOR 1937

This list contains a fair proportion of the best in Dahlias, both East and West, also some of the best from Down Under.

NEW DAHLIAS FOR 1937

Alf M. Landon, I. D.....$15.00 Net

This dahlia attracts immediate attention in the garden. It is of a beautiful rich gold with tips of petals rich yellow. Stems 15 to 20 inches long. Blooms have been measured 13½ inches wide and 7 inches deep. See back page.

Tillie Neish, I. D..... 15.00 Net

The color is a rich deep yellow. This dahlia scored 86 at Storr's. It grows 6 to 7 feet high. The huge flowers are borne on strong stems. Many of the blooms measure 13 inches across and 8 to 9 inches in depth. See front page.

Ned Stearns, St. Cactus..... 10.00 Net

A beautiful spectrum red on wonderful stem, bloom measuring 10 to 11 inches wide and 5 inches deep. Was awarded first at San Francisco for 12 blooms one variety, California origin, second at San Mateo Floral Fiesta, only times shown.

Christine Janssen, cactus.... 15.00 Net

Many dahlia fans claim this is the largest cactus grown. Some blooms have measured 14½ inches across. Won first as the best three year old at Alameda. Also first as best three year old at San Leandro, also best flower in the show. The flower is pure yellow in color on extra long stems. See center page.

Buff Beauty, S. C..... 5.00 Net

(Serpa-Garrity)

This is a dahlia worth while, color pure buff throughout, good strong stems and good size flowers. You will like this one.

Testimonial Letters from All Over the World Compliment Our Gardens

FROM TORONTO, CANADA:

"The flowers from your seeds have a distinguished character showing that crosses were made with a purpose and successfully accomplished."

A LOCAL GROWER SAYS:

"I won first at our show with a flower from your seeds."

FROM BRANTFORD, ONTARIO, CANADA:

"Your seeds are the best I ever saw. I have tried several but yours are the tops."

FROM NEW YORK:

"After having tried dahlia seeds from several sources I have come to the conclusion that yours are the best."

FROM FAR OFF AUSTRALIA:

"I must congratulate you on the splendid success I have achieved from your seeds. They are absolutely the 'goods'."

Names of the above writers, and many other writers of testimonials will be sent upon request.
